

Pick your favorite, write your own, or use a combination over a couple of weekends to help promote the event in your parish. Do not limit yourself to the parish bulletin, but consider other official communication channels as well (i.e. parish newsletter, website, SNS page, approved text-messaging system, and so on.) Be sure to run these in August and September - before the registration deadline!

Diocesan Youth Convention 2016: Hundreds of high school teenagers will be gathering at St. Michael Parish in Canton on Sunday, November 6th for the 2016 Diocesan Youth Convention—"Mercy Begins with Me." Come be a part of it! Join young people from all over the Diocese for a day of music, food, prayer, and inspired by this Jubilee Year of Mercy. MERCY BEGINS WITH ME

Come to the Diocesan Youth Convention (DYC) to help deepen your faith as you grow in understanding of Mercy, celebrate Mass with our Bishop George V. Murry, S.J., explore our faith in workshops, and put into practice through interactive activities, all while meeting hundreds of teens from around the diocese.

Register with __{insert your name and number here}___Today!

* The amount is left blank so you can decide the amount you will charge each participant.

{The registration fee is $ 25 until Wednesday, October 19, or late registration is $ 40 from October 20–26.

For example: determine whether the parish can subsidize a portion of the registration fees, and/or transportation costs, and list only the amount participants must contribute to the total registration cost. You may decide to meet for lunch prior to or dinner following the event and wish to factor that costs in as well. Your parish may need to charge $45 to cover costs, while another may charge only $15 due to fund-raising outcomes.}
