

Pope Francis wants to hear from YOU!

Bishop George V. Murry, S.J. wants to hear from you!

The Catholic Church
needs to hear from you!

In October 2018, Catholic bishops from all over the world will meet in Rome for a synod focusing on "Youth, Faith and Vocational Discernment."

The goal of the synod is to develop a pastoral guide on how the Church encounters young adults (primarily ages 16 - 29) and how it can better help those young people to encounter Jesus.

YOUR INPUT IS NEEDED!

Catholic Teens (High school aged)

Catholic Young Adults (ages 19-30s)

Non-Catholic Teens (High school aged)

Non-Catholic Young Adults (ages 19 – 30s)

Parents/Family of teens and/or young adults

Parish Staff and Leadership (including schools and other Catholic Institutions)

By completing an online survey by August 15, 2017, you will contribute to the conversations that will take place in Rome next year by Bishops and Pope Francis. This information will also be shared with Diocese of Youngstown offices and submitted to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for a national report to the Synod.

Pope Francis wants to hear from YOU

If you are a high school teen, a parent, young adult age 19 - 30s,
or in Church Leadership in the Diocese of Youngstown, go to www.doy.org
click on the Pope image
by August 15, 2017